

Women: Where We Work

Wednesdays, January 18-February 8, 5-7:00pm,
Princeville Community Center Only $45

- This class will explore the concept of women in non-traditional careers (less than 25% of women working in that field).
- Feature real women telling stories of their experiences working in these fields; both in person and via DVD.
- Explore both the challenges and the rewards.
- Class time will include discussions, short class activities, and outside work, if the student desires.
- This class is great for those looking at career changes, those starting a career or choosing college study path, those who like exploring the concepts of gender.

Leah Tamara has been a Prevention Educator for the YWCA of Kauai for over 3 years. She has been working in the field of gender and empowerment for approximately 10 years. Through her various studies and training she is able to help facilitate enjoyable and open dialogue around complex issues.
